COUNCIL RESOLUTION NO. 24 Series of 2008

RE: JJWC Executive Director

WHEREAS, Republic Act 9344, otherwise known as the "Juvenile Justice and Welfare Act of 2006" created the Juvenile Justice and Welfare Council (JJWC) and enumerated its duties and functions for the effective implementation of the law;

WHEREAS, in compliance with Section 8, during the 9th regular meeting of the Juvenile Justice and Welfare Council (JJWC) held on 24 April 2007, the Organizational structure and Staffing Pattern of the JJWC Secretariat was discussed and formulated;

WHEREAS, by virtue of JJWC Resolution No 8, dated May 22, 2007 the Staffing Pattern of the Secretariat was adopted. The Secretariat shall be headed by an Executive Director III;

WHEREAS, Rule 10 of the Implementing Rules and Regulations states that the Secretary of Justice shall appoint the officers and staff of the JJWC Secretariat upon a favorable recommendation of the JJWC;

WHEREAS, after a thorough consideration of the record of the applicants for the position of Executive Director and subjecting them to a series of interviews, the Council decided that Mr. Martin Roger R. Perfecto to be the most qualified candidate for the position.

WHEREFORE, in view of the foregoing considerations, the Council resolves, as it is hereby resolved, to recommend Mr. Martin Roger R. Perfecto as Executive Director of the JJWC Secretariat.

Adopted and approved this 30th day of October, 2008 at Makati, Philippines.

The designation of PhD Candidate means that all requirements—courses taken and the comprehensive exams—have been fulfilled save for the dissertation. Moreover, this particular Doctoral program is a fast-track program, a fusion of both the Master of Arts and Doctoral degrees. Technically, a PhD Candidate in Criminal Justice is—at the very least—one who holds a Master of Arts degree and a dissertation short of the Doctoral degree.*
